

What Are the Effects of the Holy Spirit?

January 11, 2020

My son, the transformation is the will of you changing your ways to be my children in Christ.

It is the willingness to come to me and repent and save your soul.

It is coming into my presence.

It is having a home with me in Heaven.

It is coming home to me.

It is being at peace with me and my father.

It is becoming more like me.

It is my love that I give to all, but only a few have accepted it. You are only a few that came to me and have answered my call to change and come to my invitation to be set free of all that isn't mine.

It is accepting my love and my forgiveness.

It is accepting that I Am who I Am.

It is I, my son, that has opened the door; and you said yes to me and my Father.

It is the beginning of a new life with me.

My son, it is I that has brought you to where you are.

It is my will that my blessing is given to you to give to others.

It is I that has called all, but only a few said yes to me.

Transformation is coming to me and being my son or my daughter, that leads you to me. Without it you can't be in my presence.

My son, thank you for your love for us, [for being] willing to come to me and saying yes to all that I put you in. This is love for me and my Father. That is why I have called you all to be more than what you are; so much to share, so much love to give.

So, come to me more and I will bless you more.

My son, love all as I love you.

I Am who I Am, Love and Mercy.

Thank you, my Lord and my god

If More Would Come

January 16, 2020

My Lord, thank you for your love for us all.

My son, thank you for your love for us. My son, thank you for coming to visit me and to tell me that you love us.

If more would come, then there will be peace in the world. All would be in love with each other, peace would reign in their hearts, peace would be on earth. This will come when I come: no more war, nor more violence, no more time but to be in presence, just love and mercy. This is why my Son came to the world: to bring peace and love to the world that was on its way to [being] destroyed by fire. But my mercy came and I sent my Son to save it from the fire of Hell. That is why I had to come to save my people from the death of Hell. This is why I came: to tell all that the time is so near and my Father has sent his angel to all parts of the world, that the hour to come to me is now! No more time will be given and all is in order. All is in its place. It is only time that is running out and your time to choose to come to me or stay and pray that the enemy will come to take you with him into the Death of Hell where there is no way out; fire that will consume your soul and burn like the fire from the sun; no end to it, but you will continue to burn forever—just because you say no to me and my Father. What more do you want?

I have given you all you need to change your ways, but you are still blind and can't see the truth of who I Am. My love is there for all. So, come running to me. Come asking me to lead you to myself, that I may have mercy on all that come to me asking for my love and mercy. I am there, hoping that you will come to me before my Father sounds the trumpets and my angel will come for those that are mine. Pray, my son, that all that is coming and that [they] will come to me.

I am Love. So, come to me and I will come to you.

My son, that is all. Keep your heart open to me. Always ask me to bless you with all you need.

I Am who I Am, Love and Mercy.
